"Truly days I'll remember all my life!"

"I got to know myself better, and I've discovered potentialities that I thought I would have never had"

"Vacational Studies has been such an amazing learning process for me about leadership as a prefect"

What makes us special

- UK Reps – native English-speaking children who mix with everyone.
- Competitive 'League' matches – in a variety of sports with each side dressed in their House colour.
- Mentors – Under 16s can take responsibility to help new or uncertain students.
- House Captains/Sub-Prefects - 16/17s can help Captain a House in sports competitions.
- Prefects – 17+s can be Prefects with privileges and responsibilities for helping students.
- Apprentices – can prepare for becoming Sports Staff.
- Opportunities for personal as well as linguistic development. Students can take on leadership roles if they wish – in the classroom and in sports/social events.
- Trinity Examination Preparation - This will link in with the lessons that are not part of the Task-Based Learning programme.
- Masterclass – An optional 30-45-minute small group afternoon session for advanced learners embracing English Literature, vocabulary and pronunciation at an advanced pre-university level.
- Board Meetings – a weekly group meeting with the Director to talk about how our students feel the Course is benefiting them and how they can be guided to let it benefit them even more.

"I really can't find the words to describe the atmosphere. Everybody is just so open and really interested in each other."

'Vacational Studies is becoming an important part of our family life.'

"He made so many new friends, learned new sports, grown more confident – and learned a whole lot more English! It was the experience of a lifetime for him, and he has no greater wish than to return next summer!"

"This month has definitely been the best in our lives. We've learned a lot from the other students and our English took a jump forward."

"For me, what started as a month to improve my English ended with being the month in which I improved myself."
